

Convergence Academies Logic Model

* A connected learning environment is one where schools connect academic knowledge with student interests and peer networks